By sending a completed registration form to the organizers, applicants declare that they are in agreement with the following conditions for participation in the International Horti Fair, contained in the Regulations for Participation, the General Conditions and the 2012 Horti Fair Exhibitors' Manual for exhibitors.

Registration confers no right to specification of stand space. The organizers are entitled not to process a registration form, to specify less or more stand space than has been applied for (to a maximum of 10% of the number of square meters applied for), to decide to change stand space already specified, the square meters allocated, and the location and type of stand, or to withdraw a specification already allocated, without the participant being able to claim compensation for any loss whatsoever. The organizers reserve the right at all times to change stand locations for reasons including the halls available in the Amsterdam RAI.

The information requested on the registration form must be given in full. The organizers are entitled to refuse products and services not registered, or which are not considered admissible on the grounds of the Regulations for Participation, the General Conditions and the relevant passages from the 2012 Horti Fair Exhibitors' Manual, without being obliged to provide any compensation for this. Such products and services will be removed immediately from the International Horti Fair at the participant's expense.

CANCELLATIONS:

The organizers reserve the right at all times to change the dates of the exhibition, or to cancel the exhibition, without the participant being able to claim compensation for any loss whatsoever.

A registration cannot be withdrawn or altered unilaterally by the participant. The organizers may consent to a request for cancellation of the registration on condition that the participant involved pays a cancellation fee. This fee will amount to at least the following charges:

- Registration fee is always payable;
- 25% of the stand rent in the event of cancellation before receipt of the invoice;
- 50% of the stand rent after the invoice has been sent and/or the participant has been informed of the specification of the stand area;

- 100% of the stand rent on cancellation less than 30 days before the first building day for the International Horti Fair.

In such case, the organizers are entitled to charge interest of 1.5% per month with effect from the date of the commencement of the participant's failure to meet his obligations to pay. If payment has to be obtained through the services of third parties, the costs arising from this will be charged to the participant. In this event, the participant in default shall owe a directly payable sum equal to 15% of the amount of the invoice to a minimum of € 250.00 for the costs resulting from his default, notwithstanding any costs of litigation.
